URGENT REQUEST FOR VOLUNTEERS

To serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion at weekend Masses as so many have retired from this service during recent years leaving us with very few to attend to this ministry. Also we are constantly in need of volunteers to assist as Lectors to read the readings for Masses on the weekends. If more would come forward to serve in these ministries, those already serving would not be expected to do so, so often. Anyone who might be interested in either of these services is asked to contact Lorraine McKeough who graciously prepares the list. Her contact information: phone: (902)870-2084; e-mail: lmckeough61@gmail.com

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASSES

Continue on this Wednesday at the Antigonish East Academy in Monastery at 6:00 pm. Julianne Connors is directing the program with the assistance of several parents. We are very grateful for their generosity. If anyone parents want to admit their children to this program, which is so important for the religious formation of children, you are welcome to do so. The important dates for the reception of the Sacrament of Penance and First Holy Communion will be announced soon. These will take place in the month of April.

A FEW WORDS FROM FATHER BARRY

Time marches on and so quickly. Things are rather quiet and we continue to hope and pray the very cold winter weather will subside. Let us continue to prepare ourselves for the Holy Season of Lent for it will be upon us very quickly. So many from the Parish came to have their throats blessed on Monday last after the 9:00 am Mass in Saint Peter's Place. This is a wonderful devotion and thankfully so many still have faith in it!

God bless you and have a good week.
